A Quarterly Journal of History, Criticism, and Imagination

John J. Stuhr, editor

The Journal of Speculative Philosophy publishes systematic and interpretive articles about basic philosophical questions. Scholars examine the constructive interaction between Continental and American philosophy, as well as novel developments in the ideas and theories of past philosophers that have relevance for contemporary thinkers. The journal also features discussions of art, religion, and literature that are not strictly or narrowly philosophical. One issue per year features papers from the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy's annual conference.

Journal of Theological Interpretation

Tim Meadowcroft, editor in chief

Critical biblical scholarship as developed and defined since the mid-eighteenth century has played a significant and welcome role in pressing us to take biblical texts seriously on their own terms and diverse contexts. With the postmodern turn, additional questions have surfaced—including the theological and ecclesial location of biblical interpretation, the significance of canon and creed for biblical hermeneutics, the historical reception of biblical texts, and other more pointedly theological interests. How might we engage interpretively with the Christian Scriptures so as to hear and attend to God's voice? The Journal of Theological Interpretation aims to serve these agendas.

Preternature

Critical and Historical Studies on the Preternatural

Debbie Felton, editor

Preternature is an interdisciplinary forum for the study of the preternatural as seen in magics, witchcraft, spiritualism, occultism, prophecy, monstrophy, demonology, and folklore. The journal embraces a broad and dynamic definition of the preternatural, since the very categories of magic, religion, and science are open and active registers that the journal strives to explore, contextualize, and challenge. As an English language publication, the Western tradition is inevitably an important focus, but the journal strongly encourages submissions covering cultural traditions worldwide.

Studies in American Jewish Literature

A Journal of Literary Criticism and Theory

Benjamin Schreier, editor

The influence on American culture of thinkers such as Roth, Bellow, Malamud, Piercy, Wiesel, Potok, and Chabon cannot be overstated. Their impact can be seen in literature, philosophy, theater, and film. Studies in American Jewish Literature explores a field that has advanced in large part due to the efforts of Daniel Walden, who founded the journal in 1975. Articles on the ongoing influence, relevance, and significance of American Jewish writers contribute to our understanding of their unique place in literature and their role in portraying the complexity and richness of American Jewish life and experience.

Code of Publishing Ethics

Penn State University Press takes seriously the responsibility of all of its journal publications to reflect the highest in publication ethics. Thus all journals and journal editors are expected to abide by the following codes of ethics.‡

Penn State University Press

1. Will establish in its publications agreements clear descriptions of its own and the journal editor's duties and responsibilities, as well as those of any other entity affected by the agreement.
2. Will make every effort to respect the privacy of reviewers and readers of manuscripts submitted for review; should any research involve unidentified subjects, efforts to protect their identity will be a priority.
3. Will protect the copyright and intellectual property rights of its authors and contributors.
4. Will promote editorial autonomy.
5. Will protect the right of free speech.

General duties and responsibilities of editors

1. Editors are responsible for everything published in their journals.
  - 1.1. They will endeavor to:
    - 1.1.1. meet the needs of readers and authors;
    - 1.1.2. improve the journal;
    - 1.1.3. maintain the quality of the material they publish;
    - 1.1.4. champion freedom of expression;
    - 1.1.5. maintain the integrity of the academic record;
    - 1.1.6. preclude business needs from compromising intellectual standards;
    - 1.1.7. always be willing to publish corrections, clarifications, retractions, and apologies when needed.
2. Relations with readers
  - 2.2. If applicable, readers will be informed about who has funded research and about the role of the funders in the research.
3. Relations with authors
  - 3.3. Editors should take all reasonable steps to ensure the quality of the material they publish.
  - 3.4. Editors' decisions to accept or reject a paper for publication should be based only on the paper's importance, originality, and clarity, and the manuscript's relevance to the journal.
  - 3.5. A description of peer review processes should be published, and editors should be ready to justify any important deviation from the described processes.
  - 3.6. Journals should have a declared mechanism for authors to appeal against editorial decisions.
  - 3.7. Editors should provide authors with clear submissions guidelines.
  - 3.8. Editors should not reverse decisions to accept submissions unless serious problems are identified with the submission.
  - 3.9. Incoming editors should not reverse decisions to publish submissions made by the previous editor unless serious problems are identified.
4. Editors, the peer review process, and relations with reviewers
  - 4.10. Editors should provide reviewers with guidelines, which should be current.
  - 4.11. Editors should strive to protect peer reviewers' identities.
  - 4.12. Editors should ensure that material submitted to their journal remains confidential while under review.

‡ This ethics statement was adapted from the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE: <http://publicationethics.org/>), with permission. COPE was not involved in the drafting of this statement. COPE is a forum for editors and publishers of peer-reviewed journals to discuss all aspects of publication ethics. It also advises editors on how to handle cases of research and publication misconduct.

Why Publish With Us

Located on the main campus of The Pennsylvania State University, the Press has been dedicated to the publication of current scholarship through its journals division since the late 1960s. Its journals program serves to disseminate the results of original research in the form of new information, interpretations, or methods of analysis in core fields of the humanities and social sciences. The Press currently publishes a broad range of subjects, including utopian studies; transportation and logistics; medieval studies; philosophy; literature and periodical studies; political-economic systems; general education; Shaw studies; Nietzsche studies; Pennsylvania history; and American literature.

Penn State University Press provides a full range of services to our publishing partners, allowing them more time to acquire the best and most current scholarship in their discipline. Our services are tailored to the unique and individual needs of each publication and organization. Our staff of dedicated professionals takes pride in our experience, customer service, and individual attention at all levels.
